

This nonprofit organization mission is to advance the awareness and treatment of Endosalpingiosis through education and information, research, and support for individuals with Endosalpingiosis their families, and other concerned parties.

We have a patient registry with Stanford CoRDS. We are involved with the rare disease community advocate including Global Genes NORD.

Find us on Facebook

@endosalfound

@endosal-foundation

endosalpingiosisfoundation@
gmail.com

ENDOSALPINGIOSIS FOUNDATION INC

www.endosalfoundation.org

What is Endosalpingiosis

is a painful reproductive condition where tissue from the Fallopian tubes is found outside of the tubes and elsewhere in the pelvic cavity, causing pain and infertility.

Endosalpingiosis and endometriosis are linked together that can cause Ovarian Cancer in some cases/

Common symptoms

Pelvic pain and pain between periods, pain during sex dyspareunia. chronic back pain, headaches, problems sleeping mood swings.

Results are found on pathology report after excision surgery.

There is not a cure
There is a known treatment for endosalpingiosis. Excision surgery is the gold standard for treatment.